John Cameron Mackenzie was born in Scotland in 1888 and enlisted in the AIF on the 6th July 1915. He was married to Agnes Mackenzie and 27 years old at the time of his enlistment. He was farmer and labourer originally from (according to records Caboolture/Landsborough in Qld) Subsequently his wife moved to Apple Tree Creek near Childers in Queensland. She was later to move to Brisbane also.

John Mackenzie was to join the 26th Battalion training group (made up of mainly Queensland recruits) and was consequently allocated to the 12th Battalion in 1915 and proceeded overseas on HMAT Warilda from Brisbane to Alexandria in Egypt on the 5th October 2015. He arrived there as the Gallipoli forces had been withdrawn and garrisoned in Egypt awaiting further orders at Zeitoun. This was a major training base for the soldiers of Australia and New Zealand awaiting transport to France and the Western front.

He undertook many weeks training here and finally was appointed to the 12th Battalion and shipped to Marseille France in April 1916. The Battalion would have been readied in Northern France where the Australian soldiers were first stationed around Armentieres and given and introduction to what would become bloody trench warfare. He would go on during the next 2 years to take part in significant battles on the Western Front on the Somme and in Belgium. He most likely would have taken part in battles at Poziers, Ypres and various places on the Somme.

12th Battalion

After the withdrawal from Gallipoli, the 12th Battalion returned to Egypt and, in March 1916, sailed for France and the Western Front. From then until 1918 the battalion took part in bitter trench warfare. The battalion's first major action in France was at Pozières in the Somme valley in July 1916. After Pozières, the battalion fought at Ypres in Flanders and then returned to the Somme for winter 1916. In 1917 the battalion took part in the brief advance that followed the German Army's retreat to the Hindenburg Line. The battalion subsequently returned to Belgium to participate in the offensive that became known as the Third Battle of Ypres. In March and April 1918 the battalion helped to stop the German spring offensive, and later participated in the great allied offensive of 1918, fighting near Amiens on 8 August 1918. This advance by British and empire troops was the greatest success in a single day on the Western Front, one that German General Erich Ludendorff described as "the black day of the German Army in this war".

The battalion continued operations until late September 1918. At 11 am on 11 November 1918, the guns fell silent.

In April 1916 he was on the Somme at Pozieres and Dernancourt until the end of the Somme offensive when the battalion returned north to Ypres and Flanders.

In March April 1917 he was on the front line around Lille again and during early May 1917 in the front line at Bapaume Ribemont and Dernancourt near Albert again in the Somme region. He was wounded in action sustaining a gunshot wound to the right arm. He was transferred to Co. Depot on 20th May, 1917 and rejoined his unit on 5th June, 1917. He was granted leave in France from 3rd to the 19th September, 1917 and was again to rejoin with his unit in Belgium on 19th September, 1917. He was also appointed Lance Corporal on 28th September, 1917 having a leadership role with a group of soldiers.

He suffered trench fever and again was repatriated to Boulogne and then England on the 16th January 1918. On March 30th 1918 he was at Sutton Veny and was finally posted back to France from Southampton on 9th April, 1918 and rejoined his unit at Le Havre on 10th April returning at this time to his unit in Belgium on the 27th April 1918.

Just 4 days later on the 1st May in operations around Caestre in Northern France as part of the allied offensive he was killed while resting at Borre North siding. A shell is believed to have landed on a hut where they were resting and he and 14 men were killed.;The war diary of the 12th Battalion speaks of the deaths.

He was buried at Le Peuplier Military Cemetery near Caestre. 6 1/2 miles W.N.West of Bailleul - British Cemetery Plot No 1 - Row A - Grave 4.

After the war and in the communications to his next of kin ,photos of his Grave were finally sent to his wife at a Maleny address on the 9th October, 1920.

A Letter dated 3rd October, 1920 States that Mrs Mackenzie (John's wife) died on 9th October, 1920 at Loganlea, Queensland and that the nearest relative was now his Father Mr J Mackenzie of Caboolture, Qld.

The Memorial Plaque was sent to his Mother Direct on 1st November, 1922 John's Mother also claims next of kin Status as per letter dated 20th January, 1921. His Medals were forwarded to his wife C/- Mr F. Dunlop, Maleny Qld.

A letter dated 5th September, 1921 from M.G. Mackenzie claiming the medals as next of kin address then Dixon Street, Lambton NSW also claiming the Mother's Badge, also requesting a photo of John's grave.

His personal items were returned to his wife 11th June, 1918 - 3 wallets, note book, mirror, whistle with lanyard, letter photo, and cards. There is some confusion as to whether any of these items were ever received.

Cameron was to go to war as all young men were called to support King and Country. He was to survive the horrors of that war, only to finally be killed so close to the end of the War to end all wars.

The War diary accounting for the death in May 1918.

Caestre is a village in the Department of the Nord, on the main road between Cassel and Bailleul, and the hamlet of Le Peuplier is nearly 2 kilometres from Caestre.

The cemetery was used by fighting units from the beginning of May to the end of August 1918 for the burial of casualties sustained during the German offensive.

There are now 106 First World War burials in the cemetery

Buried in a farming area along with his Scottish mates
